About the workshop

The IBA VIAC CDRC Mediation Masterclass is an opportunity for students and young professionals to enhance their skills in mediation and negotiation in an international environment. In line with the objective of the IBA VIAC CDRC Moot, the Mediation Masterclass aims to provide a practice platform for students & young practitioners and give them the opportunity to interact with others. This will be combined with lectures that give insights on mediation and negotiation. In the practice sessions, the participants will receive expert feedback on their negotiation and mediation skills.

CONTENT

Each day will consist of a six-hour session alternating between interactive teaching sessions and practise / role play sessions (and breaks).

Day 1 will focus on	Day 2 will focus on an introduction to the essentials of mediation in theory and practice	sessions providing insight from practitioners on tools and interventions
a hands-on session on “how to analyse a case” to prepare for a mediation	a broad and varied range of practice sessions, including expert feedback

PARTICIPANTS

The IBA VIAC CDRC Mediation Masterclass is designed for students or young practitioners with a background in legal or economic studies and interested in mediation and negotiation. You are invited to apply either as a university team of 3 to 6 students or as individual.

CONTRIBUTION

There is no financial contribution to participate in the IBA VIAC CDRC Mediation Masterclass. There is, however, an obligation to actively participate.

In the course of the two days of the IBA VIAC CDRC Mediation Masterclass, there will be role plays. The participants will be assigned to the respective roles either as negotiator or as mediator. Preferences for a certain role will be taken into consideration to the extent possible. Note that by applying for the IBA VIAC CDRC Mediation Masterclass you commit to join the sessions with video on.

CASE INFORMATION

The workshop will be based on a Dispute in the Palm Oil Industry (the Vis Moot and CDRC case 2022). In addition to the original case, supplementary material to prepare for the workshop will be provided and participants are asked to read them before the workshop.

About the speakers

Natascha Tunkel, Chair of the CDRC Case working group 2022

Natascha applies over ten years of experience in the field of alternative dispute resolution in her practice. She is admitted to the Austrian Bar and also qualified as a mediator. Natascha is specialized in international commercial mediation, arbitration, and litigation, and has handled numerous international commercial disputes. Her expertise is internationally recognized, most recently in WWL Commercial Mediation 2022. Natascha is Officer to the IBA Mediation Committee and is a member of the VIAC Mediation Advisory Board.

Katja Kröll, Member of the CDRC Case working group 2022

Katja is a certified public accountant and qualified commercial mediator. She combines in-depth expert knowledge of economic contexts and analysis with dispute resolution through mediation. After more than twenty years of advising large companies in one of the “big four” accounting firms (KPMG), Katja founded her own business. In her practice, she primarily works with small and medium enterprises, with a special focus on business mediation for family-owned companies. She has broad experience, especially in the retail and wholesale sector.
